Wife Murderer And Arch Bigamist Goes To The Scaffold After Fight For Life.

LAST ATTEMPTED DELAY FAILED

One Of The Most Bitter Fights For Life Ends On The Scaffold In The Cook County Jail Today.

"Father forgive them for they know not what they do. I die innocent. Goodbye."—Johann Hoch.

Hoch Hanged
Chicago, Feb. 23, 1:40 p. m.—Johann Hoch was hanged at 1:34 p. m.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Chicago, Feb. 23.—Johann Hoch is dead.

At one-thirty-two he stepped upon the scaffold and two minutes later was dead.

Game to the last, with a prayer of forgiveness for his so-called persecutors and judicial murderers, Johann Hoch, probably the bluebeard of modern times, died today.

No case in the history of criminal annals has been so bitterly fought, even up to the gallows steps. No contrivance of legal machinements was spared to try to save his life.

Took Dinner
Shortly before the march to the scaffold commenced Hoch ate a hearty dinner with an evident relish.

Goes to Scaffold
At 1:32 Hoch, accompanied by a deputy sheriff and the jailer and two ministers, stepped upon the scaffold and two minutes later he was a corpse.

Died Instantly
Death was instantaneous and his neck was broken. He was pale, but composed and full of courage. Just before the trap was sprung Hoch said:

His Prayer
"Father forgive them for they know not what they do. I die innocent. Goodbye."

To Be Buried
The body was delivered to a local undertaker, who had been engaged to inter it at his own expense.

No Confession
Rev. Burkland, who had talked with Hoch shortly before he went to the scaffold, said that Hoch had confessed that he had been a bigamist and a very wicked man, but he declined to say whether or not he had confessed to the crime for which he had been executed.

Will Investigate
After the hanging Hoch's attorneys said they would appeal to the United States supreme court and if Judge Landis' decision in refusing to grant a writ of habeas corpus is reversed they would try to have all who took any official part in the hanging indicted for murder.

Asked a Stay
Chicago, Feb. 23, 10 a. m.—Attorneys for Johann Hoch filed a petition in the federal court praying for an intervention to prevent his execution. The claim is made that the state authorities are violating the fourteenth amendment and endeavoring to execute Hoch without due process of law. Jailer Whitman announced that the execution would be delayed pending the outcome of the legal complication.

Later Word
Chicago, Feb. 23, 11 a. m.—Hoch's execution may be delayed until two o'clock this afternoon, if necessary.

Denies Petition
Chicago, Feb. 23, 11:30 a. m.—Judge Landis has denied Hoch's petition.

Start Preparations
Preparations for the hanging were immediately begun following the Landis decision, but were again stopped when Hoch's attorneys arrived with an appeal bond for Hoch's signature.

History of Hoch Case
Hoch is believed to have come originally from Horrevorts, a small town in Germany not far from Bingen-on-the-Rhine. His father, Jacob Schmitt, is said to still reside there. A wife, supposed to be the first wife of Hoch, is also living at the same place. Hoch has always been reticent regarding his career in this country, and his first wife, married in the United States, is believed to have been Mrs. Martha Steinbrecher, to whom he was married in 1895. After living with Hoch for four months she died, the cause of death being given as nephritis.

In November, 1895, he married Mary Rankin in this city, and left her the day after the wedding because she refused to give him her money.

In April, 1896, Hoch married Martha Hertzfeld, and left her in four months after obtaining from her $600. His next wife, it is said, to have been Mary Hoch of Wheeling, W. Va. She died of nephritis after three months. Hoch has always denied this marriage and declared that he merely assumed the woman's name.

In 1896

In the fall of 1896 Hoch married Clara Bartell of Cincinnati, and she died within three months of the marriage. In January, 1897, he was married to Julia Dose in Hamilton, O., and abandoned her after obtaining $700.

In April, 1898, Hoch was arrested in this city for selling mortgaged furniture, and served two years in the House of Correction.

In November, 1901, he was married to Mrs. Anna Goelcke of Chicago, but abandoned her after failing to obtain any money from her. April 8, 1902, he married in St. Louis Mrs. Mary Decker, who died early in 1903. Her relatives have claimed she was poisoned.

His Chicago Wife
Dec. 10, 1904, Hoch was married to Mrs. Marie Weicker, a widow of this city, the woman for whose murder he was condemned. December 20 she became ill and January 12 she died, the cause of death being stated in the physician's certificate as nephritis. Five days later Hoch married Mrs. Emilio Fischer, a sister of Mrs. Weicker-Hoch. He obtained $750 from her and disappeared. January 10 the last Mrs. Hoch reported to the police the disappearance of her husband. Suspicion was aroused by her story, and the body of Mrs. Weicker-Hoch was exhumed and 7.6 grains of arsenic were found in the stomach. Search was made for Hoch and he was finally discovered in New York, where his landlady, Mrs. Kimmely, reported that he believed her boarder to be Hoch, because he had proposed marriage to her on the day of his arrival in her house. He was arrested and later brought to Chicago.

Admits Bigamy
Hoch, after being placed in jail here, admitted that he had been married thirteen times, but always denied that he had caused the death of any of his wives. He was placed on trial April 19, and on May 29 the jury returned a verdict finding him guilty of murder, and fixing the punishment as death. On June 3 a sentence was passed on him and the date of the execution being set for June 23. Gov. Deneen granted him a reprieve until July 28. Within one hour of the time set for his execution Hoch was given a second reprieve until Aug. 25. Before this date arrived, however, the supreme court of the state granted a supersedeas to permit of the consideration of his case by the court. December 15th the court handed down a decision affirming the verdict in the lower court, and fixing the date of execution for Feb. 23.

His Last Trial
The last effort made by Hoch to secure a new trial ended on Feb. 21st, when Gov. Deneen and board of pardons refused to interfere in his behalf. It was alleged before the board by Mrs. Emilio Fischer-Hoch that she had been soounded by the police that she had committed perjury during the trial and that much of the evidence which she had given against Hoch was not true. A physician also declared that the death of Mrs. Weicker-Hoch had been caused by kidney disease, and not by arsenical poisoning. On cross-examination before the board, however, he admitted that he had not made a post-mortem examination of the body of Mrs. Weicker-Hoch, while three physicians who had conducted such an examination declared that death was caused by arsenic.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Mt. Holly, N. J., Feb. 23.—Justice has long enjoyed a reputation for swiftness, but even its own record was smashed in the case of Rufus Turner, a negro, who was hanged today. HOT POLITICS IN FIERY TENNESSEE

Ante-Bellum Campaigns to Be Surpassed in Fierceness by Fight Among Democrats.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 23.—Tennessee is now in the heat of a political contest that surpasses even the campaigns of ante-bellum days in spectacular effect, bitter denunciation and intense partisan effort. United States Senator Carmack, who is a candidate for reelection, is being opposed by former Governor Robert L. Taylor, one of the most popular democratic leaders of the state, and the only man who has been honored with the governorship three times since the war. He has been a candidate for the senate three times before, but always before the legislative general assembly. This time he has the fight of his life to overthrow Senator Carmack, who is the acknowledged master of the democratic machine, a brilliant orator on the stump and one of the most bitter editorial writers in the south. Between the two it is a struggle of giants and it means "the survival of the fittest."

The fight for the democratic nomination for governor is as bitter as the senatorial struggle. Three men are working for the nomination, the present governor, John I. Cox, Mr. R. Patterson, representative in congress from the Memphis district, and John R. Bond, a circuit judge of Brownsville. The nomination will be made in a state convention to be held in this city in May. M. R. Patterson was first to announce his candidacy, which is based upon a platform to overthrow the democratic machine, of which he charges Governor Cox is now the head and chief beneficiary. Patterson's battle cry is that there is now too much power in the hands of the governor, and he insists that present conditions be reformed and the power placed in the hands of the people. John I. Cox is an "accident" in the governor's office, succeeding Governor Frazier when the latter resigned to take his seat in the United States senate. Governor Cox is seeking election as a "business" governor, arguing that he has saved much money in an economical administration. Judge Bond is regarded as the candidate of the temperance element. The republicans are watching the democratic fight with great satisfaction, for they believe that this year for the first time in the history of Tennessee they will stand some show of electing a governor. H. Clay Evans, former commissioner of pensions, is to be their nominee.

EXTENDS TIME TO KEEP PEACE

Germany Realizes That Reciprocity With The United States Is Good Thing.

IS A BENEFIT TO BOTH COUNTRIES

German Chancellor Declares That Both Countries Wish To Avoid A Disastrous Trade War To Benefit Others.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Berlin, Feb. 23.—The Reichstag, today, by a large majority, passed the final reading of a bill providing for the extension of Germany's reciprocal tariff rates with the United States up to 1907.

When Chancellor von Bülow opened the debate the house was thinly attended. Ambassador Tower and Second Secretary Garrett were alone in the diplomatic gallery. The chancellor said the negotiation of a new treaty with the United States was beset with difficulties, and asked the concession, not as a right under the most favored nation policy, but because it was in the interest of both nations to avoid a tariff war.

The chancellor said he placed a high value on good political relations between Germany and the United States, which were a blessing to both lands, but it would be deceptive to believe that he would buy political friendship by the sacrifice of Germany's economic interests. The grounds of the government's proposal were that a tariff war, which must be resorted to only in case of necessity, would damage not only Germany's shipping interests, but other important departments of industry. Although the United States would be injured in its exports, which had grown considerably, the advantage of such a war would rest with a third country. The chancellor presumably meant Great Britain.

Acts in Interest of Peace.
"We are therefore forced," said the chancellor, "to ask parliament to extend this measure as a surrender to the leaders of the several parliamentary groups then expressed their opinion. Count von Scherwin-Loewitz, conservative, said:

"After all is said we must still regard this measure as a surrender to the protective tariff policy of the United States. We refuse to sign the capitulation."

Herrmann, Molkenbuh, socialist; Herr Kaempff, moderate radical; Dr. Herold, centrist, and Dr. Paasche, national liberal, announced that they would support the bill on the ground that it was necessary.

Count von Pasdowsky-Wehner said: "The purpose of the provisional arrangement is to give America time to think. I believe the time has come when American citizens see they are merely the football of the great trusts, but we will not wait until this discovery has been made. A tariff war causes the greatest embitterment, like other wars."

That a La Crosse clairvoyant professes to know and that in a "reading" with Mrs. M. E. Mosher of that city before the theft of her jewels, amounting to $2,300, she foretold the robbery, is a new feature in the mysterious burglary.

General need of better revolvers, with an almost new equipment for the patrolmen of La Crosse has been exemplified in the target practice which is being held weekly in order to test the marksmanship of members of the police force. were valued at $4,420,409, compared with $4,383,882 in 1905, the earliest year available for comparison. The principal items exported to Norway last year were breadstuffs, iron and steel manufactures, refined mineral oil, oleomargarine and oleo oil, bacon, lard, and other provisions, sole leather, molasses and sirup, and raw cotton. Oleomargarine and the oil shows the largest value, being $940,046, compared with $578,425 for lard, $506,523 flour, $370,934 bacon, $37,066 refined mineral oil, $293,147 iron and steel, and $154,987 sole leather. Other articles ranging from 50 to 90 thousand dollars each include corn, agricultural implements, raw cotton, cotton-seed oil, beef (salted or pickled), molasses and sirup, unmanufactured tobacco, and wood in various stages of manufacture.

Imports from Denmark have increased about 50 per cent during the last five years, the total for 1905 being $1,008,750, compared with $644,993 in 1901. The list of important articles imported is not an extended one. Hides and skins showed the largest value in 1905, $245,157, against $162,453 in 1901; no other single item showed as much as $100,000, rennets, the next largest item, being $71,706; unground flint, $43,067; household and personal effects, $37,898, and seeds, $36,118. Our exports to Denmark have slightly decreased since 1901, having been in 1905 $1,581,568, against $1,675,235 in 1901. The losses have been largely confined to breadstuffs, raw cotton, and provisions, though small decreases occur in numerous other articles. Corn decreased from $5,049,492 in 1901 to $3,761,910 in 1905; wheat, whose exports ranged from two-thirds of a million to over two million dollars during the past four years, has entirely disappeared from the list of exports to Denmark in 1905; flour decreased from $408,134 in 1901 to $401,686 in 1905; raw cotton from $1,177,048 in 1901 to $421,460 last year; oleomargarine and oleo oil from $909,984 in 1901 to $542,512 in 1905; refined mineral oil from $54,737 in 1901 to $891,152 in 1905; agricultural implements from $475,109 in 1901 to $369,436 in 1905, and iron and steel manufactures from $545,759 in 1901 to $496,225 in 1905. PRESS COMMENT.

The Campaign in Superior.
Editor Kunkle in the Clarion: It was I, and not Mayor O'Hare, who said you were a dirty liar.

Architecturally Impossible.
Milwaukee Sentinel: Don't credit that statement that "Tatu has his year to the ground." He is not built that way.

What Shall We Call Ours?
La Crosse Tribune: In Montgomery, Ala., the patrol wagon is called Lucile. But after all it isn't so much what they call it as when.

Have Been Guessing Right Along.
Sheboygan Journal: It is now a subject of debate among the merchants whether to close out their winter goods or advertise spring sales.

Stay-At-Home's Boast.
La Crosse Leader-Press: The scores at the state bowling tournament at Oshkosh indicate that La Crosse might have taken all the prizes had it been represented.

Then Why Raise Question?
Racine Journal: A scientist finds catgut and fish bones digest quicker than does good beef, but just the same a diet of catgut and bones of fish is not advised by physicians.

Let Us Be Thankful.
Superior Telegram: Foreign immigration to the United States in January showed a falling off of 5,000 compared with the arrivals in the same month last year.

For the Pale-Face—Not His Bride.
La Crosse Chronicle: The Ponca Indians saved the day for Longworth. They sent him a present and demonstrated the fact that there was a groom in the case.

Theatre As A Slang-Mill.
El Paso Herald: Sarah Bernhardt wants to know if the stage helps the world. Sure thing, madam. Where would the boys get their supply of slang if it were not for the low comedian?

Floradora Sextette Unlimited.
Oshkosh Northwestern: It is really wonderful how the supply of "original" Floradora sextette girls keep up. Still another of them has just been married according to the newspaper reports.

Shakespeare To Pay Penalty.
The theatrical syndicate has decided to drop Shakespeare. That is the bard's punishment for forgetting to put a double sextette and a leap for life into each of his plays.

Friendly Counsel Needed.
Chicago Tribune: Sincere friends of the party should suggest to a certain west side undertaker that it does not look well to have the sign, "Democratic Polling Place," tacked on a coffin in his front window.

Didn't Deserve To Lose Her.
Life: Three Germans were sitting at luncheon recently and were overheard discussing the second marriage of a mutual friend, when one of them remarked: "I'll tell you what. A man who marries a second time doesn't deserve to have lost his first wife."

Analogy That's Poor Dope.
Exchange: Reasoning by analogy, the Tokio papers figure that if their country could whip China with her 400,000,000 people or Russia with 120,000,000 it ought not to be such a hard stunt to

Cream Baking Powder

Good Health depends upon the food you eat.

Adds to the healthfulness of all risen flour-foods, while it makes the food lighter, sweeter, finer-flavored, more delicious.

Exercise care in purchasing baking powder to see that you get Dr. Price's, which makes the food more wholesome and at the same time more palatable.

NOTE—There are many mixtures, made in imitation of good baking powders, which the prudent will avoid. They may be known by their price, being sold for ten to twenty-five cents a pound, or a cent an ounce. They are made with alum, interfere with the healthfulness of the food.

Look the United States with 50,000,000 or England or Germany with 50,000,000.

The Way Of The World.

Battle Inter-Mountain: He is a rude, disagreeable man who fails to accommodate a woman with the street car seat which he has paid for, but the street car manager who neglects to supply a lady with the seat which she has paid for is usually counted as a polite and amiable person.

Loafers' Love-Making.

Boston Transcript: "Will you loaf me always?" asked the impetuous nobleman of his wealthy American bride. "I will loaf you for a year or two," was the practical reply. "And then you ought to go to work." Perhaps this is the meaning of the Countess De Castellane's divorce proceedings.

Timlin Seems A Favorite.

Madison Journal: Mr. Timlin seems to be the favorite for the supreme bench in these parts at present, though Mr. Hamlich of Superior is approved and some regard him as bringing the desired qualities in greater intensity. At all events the bench will be recruited by a desirable man, and the feeling over the state is one of satisfaction that the campaign is moving amicably and with dignity to an outcome that must be satisfactory, whoever is chosen.

The Carnegie Joke.

Milwaukee News: In the opinion of Jerome K. Jerome, "the American people are surprised with humor." The foremost humorist is Andrew Carnegie. Mr. Carnegie's favorite joke is to give money to a town that is desirous of getting something for nothing. The only condition that Mr. Carnegie imposes is that the town shall build a library and levy a tax to support it. The town gets the building for nothing; it is true, but taxpayers that have deep-seated prejudice against paternalistic legislation and public expenditures find themselves saddled with a fixed tax for the maintenance of the free library. That is Mr. Carnegie's joke.

of Evansville made a trip to this city last Tuesday in search of a dentist who could extract teeth without hurting him.

When he got here he hunted up a friend in one of our stores and inquired if there was such a dentist in town.

The friend said: "Why, sure. There is DR. RICHARDS. He has done work in our family for five years and it proves all O. K."

"Everybody says he is the best man to go to in the city."

Mr. Seguire immediately called upon the said dentist and when seen later said he had had four dentists at him before and DR. RICHARDS was the BEST hand at it he had ever tried.

Never hurt him a bit.

If he had any more bad teeth he should come to Dr. Richards.

ENTERTAINMENT WAS VERY BIG SUCCESS

Footville Library Fund Will Be Increased by the Local Talent Production.

STREET RAILWAY IS TALKING EXTENSION

Loop May Be Built in Third Ward During the Coming Summer.

It developed at the meeting of the highway committee and the Forest Park property holders, yesterday that the owners of the Janesville street railway system are considering a plan to build a loop in the Third ward by extending the line from the intersection of Oakland ave., with Forest Park boulevard, along the boulevard to Ruger ave., thence east to Liberty street, thence north to Milwaukee ave., thence west to connect with the Forest Park line at the corner of Jackson street and Milwaukee ave. City Engineer Kerch mentioned the project as an argument against narrowing the boulevard more than forty feet.

WONDERFUL STRIKE IN LEAD DISTRICT

Cave Full of Galena Discovered Near Fairplay—Local Men Interested.

Word has been received here of a wonderful find in the Fairplay mining district in the Raisin belt of a cave full of lead ore. This is a district not hitherto exploited much and lies twelve miles north of Galena in Wisconsin. George Sutherland, M. G. Jeffris and A. M. Valentine are the Janesville men interested in this mine and from the newspaper accounts the find has been wonderful. A solid shaft of galena six feet wide and twelve feet high extending east and west has been struck and it is considered the greatest strike of the present year in mining districts. Both Galena and Dubuque newspapers lay great stress upon the strike. Another mine in which Janesville capital is interested, (the Barle), also receives an extended write up in a Dubuque paper. The same paper also reports that it will prove to be the richest deposit yet struck when squared away. This is the mine Messrs. Parker, Bostwick, Lewis and Palmer are owners of.

Last evening was society night at the roller skating rink and many enjoyed the sport of the rollers. This pastime appears to have captivated Janesville people this winter.

In honor of her seventeenth birthday, which occurs on Washington's anniversary, Miss Lucy Nott entertained a company of eight young people at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Nott, in the first ward, last evening. Games and music furnished the amusement of the occasion and delicate refreshments were served.

Miss Ethel Jenkins was hostess of the W. W. Q. club at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jenkins, corner of Fifth and Fourth avenues, yesterday afternoon. Various games were played, and an elegant spread was served at the close of the festivities. The club is an organization of young lady students of the high school and have been holding regular bi-weekly meetings during the past few months.

Yesterday afternoon the ladies of the W. R. C. celebrated Washington's birthday. They met in the afternoon at their hall and under the direction of Patriotic Instructor Mrs. Martha James assisted by Past Commander Robert Scott of Post 20 had patriotic selections on the gramophone and readings. Afterwards a delicious two course luncheon was served.

Hair and Disease.
A Japanese scientist named Matsura has been studying the effects of diseases and the varying physical state of the body upon the growth and thickness of the hair. He finds that hair, especially in the case of persons whose hair is of coarse structure, is so sensitive to bodily condition that it contains a veritable history of the state of the individual to whom it belongs, for the period covered by its growth.

RHEUMATISM THE TERROR OF WINTER

Rheumatism is usually worse in Winter because of the cold and dampness and other changed conditions of the climate. The occasional twinges of the disease that are felt during the warmer weather are changed to piercing pains, the muscles become inflamed and swollen, the nerves get sore and excited, the bones ache, and Rheumatism, the terror of winter, takes possession of the system. Then the sufferer turns to the liniment bottle, the woolen clothes, the favorite plaster or some home remedy, in an effort to get relief. But Rheumatism is not a trouble that can be rubbed away or drawn out with a plaster; these things relieve the pain and reduce the inflammation, but do not reach the real cause of the trouble, and at the next exposure another attack comes on. Rheumatism is caused by a sour, acid condition of the blood. The refuse matter and bodily impurities which should be carried off through the channels of nature have been left in the system because of indigestion, weak kidneys, torpid liver and a general sluggish condition of the system. These impurities sour and form uric acid, which is absorbed by the blood and distributed to the different muscles, joints, nerves and bones, causing the painful symptoms of Rheumatism. S. S. S. goes to the root of the trouble and cures Rheumatism by cleansing the blood. It neutralizes the acids and filters them out of the circulation and sends a stream of pure, rich blood to all parts of the body. Then the pains cease, the inflammation subsides, the nerves are quieted, every symptom of the disease passes away, and the cure is permanent. S. S. The LOWELL DEPARTMENT STORE

THE WORLD OF WHITE MARCHES ON

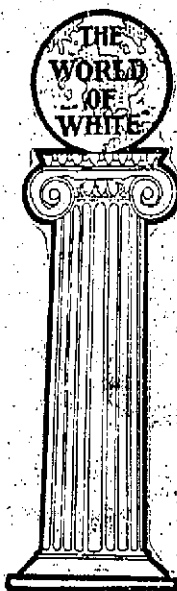

A great demonstration of this store's leadership in the attractive display as well as underpriced selling in white wear, and white dry goods merchandise. "How beautiful," say scores of our customers at the first glimpse of the World of White. "What wonderful values" they repeat when close examination is made of the heaps of white merchandise on table and counter. We are justified in stating that many cities four times the size of ours could not duplicate either the display, the great assortment of white fabrics and white wear, or the extraordinary values that are marking the World of White—the most talked of merchandise event this store has known in a long time. Come—not once, but half a dozen times, for on each visit you will see something that escaped your notice once before.

Ready Made Sheets and Slips Many people do not realize the extent of our showing of Sheets and Slips. Sheets for single or double beds, some hemmed, others hemstitched, 50c to 85c. Bed Spreads Such a stock—such a variety—such values. One can hardly fail to find just the desired style and price. Our idea of what a complete stock should be was not formed in a day or a year. Seek here and ye shall find. Three Special Numbers: $1.00 Spreads, 85c; $1.25 Spreads, 98c; $1.50 Spreads, $1.33.

WE EXPECT THAT THE WORLD OF WHITE

will be remembered all through the spring and summer seasons; will so impress people with this store's position that it will be second nature to think of Bostwick's whenever the subject of White Goods comes up.
